

Philosophy After 1800

The political thought of Hegel, Mill, Marx, and Nietzsche

Instructor: Dr Anders Kraal

1. Course Description

Following upon the cataclysmic French Revolution, philosophers in the 1800s thought deeply about where modern society is heading and where it ought to be heading. Of these thinkers G.W.F. Hegel, JS Mill, Karl Marx, and Friedrich Nietzsche were to have the greatest impact. In this course we pursue a close reading of Hegel's Philosophy of Right, and then contrast it with the differing political visions found in Mill's On Liberty, Marx's Communist Manifesto, and Nietzsche's Genealogy of Morals.

2. Lectures. MWF 10:00-10:50pm in CHEM C 124

3. Instructor. Dr. Anders Kraal (anders.kraal@ubc.ca)

4. Instructor Office Hours. TBA

5. Instructor Email Policy. Instructor will reply to emails weekdays, typically within 48 h

6. Teaching Assistant. TBA (TA will be marking exams and papers.)

7. Required Texts. G.W.F. Hegel's Outlines of the Philosophy of Right (Knox translation, Oxford UP; other editions work too.) Mill's On Liberty, Marx's Communist Manifesto, and Nietzsche's Genealogy of Morals are all available online, but will also be in the bookstore (any decent edition works).

8. Course Requirements

In-Class Exam (x3): In the in-class exams, you will be asked to provide answers to questions dealing with matters brought up in class prior to the date of the exam. If you miss these exams you will automatically be assigned 0 points unless you provide the TA with an UBC Academic Calendar approved rationale for make-up exam or transfer of the weight to the final exam.

Final Exam: The final exam will be held during UBC's final examinations period. A missed final exam will be assigned 0p unless an explanation is provided that is acceptable by the standards of the UBC Academic Calendar (in which case there will be a standing deferred final exam).

9. Learning Outcomes

At the end of the course the student is expected to i) be familiar with some main political ideas in Hegel, Mill, Marx and Nietzsche; ii) be able to reflect critically on these ideas; iii) be able to demonstrate this familiarity and reflection in answers on written exams.

10. Lecture Recordings

Lectures will be recorded and uploaded for easy student access typically within 2 days of the lecture in question. Link to recording playlist will be provided at beginning of term.

11. Marking Parameters

Your mark in this course will be a function of three main factors i) your performance on the examinable momenta relative to your peers, ii) your comprehension of the course material, iii) demonstration of skill in assessing and evaluating philosophical ideas.

12. Marking Scale

A+ 90-100% / A 85-89% / A- 80-84% / B+ 76-79% / B 72-75% / B- 68-71%

C+ 64-67% / C 60-63% / C- 55-59% / D 50-54% / F 0-49%

The degree of difficulty on the examinable momenta will be set so as to aim at a class average outcome that by and large conforms to the department average for this course down the years. Upwards scaling may be used to this effect.

13. Policy on Review of Marked Work

Marks on exams and papers will be posted on canvas. Feedback on expected outcomes of exams and papers will be provided (typically by the Instructor) in so-called Feedback Sessions. Any concerns about the marking of a paper or exam should be submitted to the marker (typically the TA) via email, and will be responded to (typically by the TA) via email.

14. Plagiarism (from the UBC Academic Calendar)

Plagiarism, which is intellectual theft, occurs where an individual submits or presents the oral or written work of another person as his or her own. Scholarship quite properly rests upon examining and referring to the thoughts and writings of others. However, when another person's words (i.e. phrases, sentences, or paragraphs), ideas, or entire works are used, the author must be acknowledged in the text, in footnotes, in endnotes, or in another accepted form of academic citation. Where direct quotations are made, they must be clearly delineated (for example, within quotation marks or separately indented). Failure to provide proper attribution is plagiarism because it represents someone else's work as one's own. Plagiarism should not occur in submitted drafts or final works. A student who seeks assistance from a tutor or other scholastic aids must ensure that the work submitted is the student's own. Students are responsible for ensuring that any work submitted does not constitute plagiarism. Students who are in any doubt as to what constitutes plagiarism should consult their instructor before handing in any assignments. 15. UBC Values and Policies (from the UBC Academic Calendar)

UBC provides resources to support student learning and to maintain healthy lifestyles but recognizes that sometimes crises arise and so there are additional resources to access including those for survivors of sexual violence. UBC values respect for the person and ideas of all members of the academic community. Harassment and discrimination are not tolerated nor is suppression of academic freedom. UBC provides appropriate accommodation for students with disabilities and for religious and cultural observances. UBC values academic honesty and students are expected to acknowledge the ideas generated by others and to uphold the highest academic standards in all of their actions. Details of the policies and how to access support are available here (<https://senate.ubc.ca/policiesresources-support-student-success>).
